

ASK Tours & Events

Special Exhibits at the King Township Museum (Tuesday to Friday, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.)

June 23 to July 18 The Humber, a Canadian Heritage River by Toronto and Region Conservation

June 30 to July 10 Write Now @ King "Connecting with Nature" Art Show

June 30 to July 31 ASK Studio Tour King Art Show, First Nations display

Tuesday, June 23

Kidsfest at the King Township Museum

9:30 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Grade 5 students from King's four public schools will participate in workshops with a focus on the arts, heritage and nature in King Township and listen to a Grade 6 rock band and secondary school musicians. This fun and educational day is presented by the King Township Museum, King Township Public Library, ASK, Arcadia Academy of Music, and Toronto and Region Conservation with assistance from McMichael Canadian Art Collection's Education Department and sponsored by Toronto and Region Conservation and ASK.

Saturday, June 27 to Friday, July 24

"Discover The Creative You" Workshops

Want to try painting, sculpting, pottery? Make a dreamcatcher? A cement birdbath or a papier maché animal? Or learn from great Chefs or how Facebook works? We have the workshops for you. Register at 905.859.0056 x5223.

Sunday, June 28

Schomberg Horticultural Society's Annual Garden Tour

10 to 4 p.m. Tickets: $10

Tickets available on the day at the Schomberg Community Hall on Main Street. Visit beautiful gardens in Schomberg, Pottageville and Ansnorveldt.

Sunday, July 5

ASK Soirée at the King Township Museum

4 to 8 p.m. Tickets $75. Reservations: 905.859.0056 x5223.

A celebration of sights, sounds and tastes of King with artists, musicians, dancers, culinary artists, vintner and brewer.

Wednesday, July 8

Music in King at Arbour Restaurant

The Blues Guitar style of Joel Krivy and

Larry Sheppard's masterful tribute to Neil Young

An evening of dining and easy listening on the patio. 7:30p.m.

$42.00 per person. Reservations: 905.859.4445

Thursday, July 9

Tom Thomson was a Weatherman with Phil Chadwick

7 p.m. Schomberg Arena Auditorium. No charge.

Phil, a meteorologist with Environment Canada, and a painter in his own right, will present a subset of Tom Thomson paintings from a collection of over 200 to which he has applied "forensic meteorology."

Saturday, July 11

Laskay Village Heritage Walking Tour

9 to 11 a.m. Laskay Hall, 12840 Weston Rd. No charge.

The Laskay Hall Board, with assistance from Elaine Robertson of Heritage King and Kathleen Fry, K.T. Museum Curator, will guide you through the beautiful village of Laskay. Laskay Hall celebrates its 150th anniversary.

Sunday, July 12

Nobleton King City Horticultural Society's Annual Garden Tour

10 to 4 p.m. Tickets: $10 available from Crawford Wells, Black Forest Garden Centre, Pathways to Perennials, Still Gorgeous and Nobleton Pharmasave. A chance to visit a variety of private gardens, from small in-town gems to large estate and farm gardens. Call Maria Pedersen 905.833.2146

Monday to Friday, July 13 to 17

Art Camp at the King Museum

7 to 9 year olds, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., $162 full week. Register at 905.833.2331 or kingmuseum@king.ca

Tuesday, July 14

Documentary "The Musical Brain" with Christina Pochmursky

7 p.m. at the King City Library. No charge. Limited seating.

Christina is one of Canada's most experienced documentary film-makers - PBS, CTV, CBC, National Geographic, Discovery and History Channels. As writer and director of The Musical Brain, she follows Sting on his journey of discovery into his own musical brain with candid interviews with Michael Bublé, Feist and Wyclef Jean. Using research by Dr. Daniel Levitin and other leading medical experts, she discovers why we all share a passion for music. View the one hour film and meet Christina!

Wednesday, July 15

Music in King at Daniel's of Nobleton The Guitar styles of Norman Liota

An evening of dinner and classical/jazz guitar. 7 p.m. $45.00 per person. Reservations: 905.859.0060

Friday, July 17

Much Ado About Nothing - Schomberg Fairgrounds, 7 p.m.

Saturday, July 18

“Bugs by the Bushel: The Diversity of Insects Around Us”

11 a.m. or 1:30 p.m. with a special Kid’s Bug Hunt at 12:30 – No charge.

The 90 minute excursion will be led by Dr. Chris Darling, Senior Curator of Entomology, Royal Ontario Museum. University of Toronto’s Koffler Scientific Reserve at Jokers Hill, 17000 Dufferin St. (south of Hwy. 9) Reservations required starting July 6. 905.727.3333 or ksr.info@utoronto.ca.

Saturday, July 18

Much Ado About Nothing - King Township Museum, 7 p.m.

Sunday, July 19

Humber River Celebration- 10th Anniversary of designation as a Canadian Heritage River

All day at Cold Creek Conservation Area. (see below for more information)

Monday to Friday, July 20 to 24

Art Camp at the King Museum

10 to 12 year olds, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., $162 full week.

Register at 905.833.2331 or kingmuseum@king.ca

Tuesday, July 21

Laskay Raspberry Social at Laskay Hall, 6:30 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Reservations required. Call 905.833.0222.

Friday, July 24

Much Ado About Nothing - Schomberg Fairgrounds, 7 p.m.

Saturday, July 25

Heritage Bus Tour of One Room School Houses in King Township

9 a.m. to noon, $35 including tea.

Muriel Beatty, a former teacher at New Scotland, Snowball and Schomberg Public Schools, as well as a former student at Crawford School will help her sons Neil and Brian lead us on a delightful tour of the 10 one room school houses still standing in the Township. There will be a stop at King Township Museum for tea, served by Crawford Wells. Our luxury 24 passenger air conditioned coach will be waiting for us at the Schomberg Arena. Reservations required. 905.859.0056 x5223

Saturday, July 25

Much Ado About Nothing - Kettleby Village Park, 7 p.m.

Humber River Shakespeare Co.

Much Ado About Nothing

Humber River Shakespeare returns this summer with the magic of outdoor theatre. Bring your family, your friends, a picnic, and a blanket and prepare to be enchanted as Shakespeare's romantic comedy MUCH ADO ABOUT NOTHING comes to King. Set in the heady and delirious times of the 1920s, the play is a tale of two loving relationships – one youthful and impetuous, the other mature, cynical and guarded – the courses of which are brought to the brink of disaster by machinations both innocent and wicked. Expect an evening of unexpected shocks, laughter and outrageous liberties in equal measure.

- Friday, July 17 and 24 Schomberg Agricultural Fairgrounds at 7 p.m.
- Saturday, July 18 King Township Museum at 7 p.m.
- Sunday, July 19 Cold Creek Conservation Area at 2 p.m.
- Saturday, July 25 Kettleby Village Park at 7 p.m.

Admission: Pay-what-you-can at the park. Suggested donation $15.

Humber River Celebration

Sunday, July 19th from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

All activities and lunch are free.

Please no dogs, for today only. Raptors can't perform with dogs around.

- 8 a.m. Bird Walk with Humber Valley Heritage Trails Association (2 hours)
- 9 a.m. Black Spruce Bog Walk with Cold Creek Stewardship (1 hour)
- 9 a.m. Hike and Click with ASK and ORTA (3 hours)
Bring your camera and tripod
- 9:30 a.m. Orienteering for the whole family with Parks Recreation & Culture (PR&C) (1 hour)
- 10:30 a.m. Raptor Show with the Canadian Raptor Conservancy (40 minutes)
5 different raptors including 3 free-fl ying birds- north of Education Centre
- 11 to 2 p.m. Food will be served near the Visitors' Centre by PR&C and CCS
- 11:15 a.m. Ceremony at the Historic Barn
- Noon Reptile and Amphibian Show and Display by "Sciensational Sssnakes" (40 minutes) The most complete collection of Ontario species in the province – safe, friendly and easy to handle - North of the Visitors' Centre.
- 1 p.m. Raptor Show with the Canadian Raptor Conservancy (40 minutes) 5 different raptors including 3 free-fl ying birds - north of Education Centre
- 2 p.m. "Much Ado About Nothing" with the Humber River Shakespeare Co. (2 hours) Bring a chair or blanket. Suggested donation $15.
- 8-4 p.m. Displays Ed Centre: ASK Nature Art Show and Sale
Visitors' Centre: HVHTA and ORTA
Heritage Barn: CCS slide show and TRCA